Join us Monday night in Floyd and Chris's home to eat our first Rice and Beans meal. March's Mission offering will be given to Lahash International. Through our participation in the Rice and Beans project we want to be intentional about Simplifying our lives, stand in Solidarity with East Africans, and Share financially through supporting Lahash. Use the booklet provided by Lahash that has been placed in your mailbox to try recipes and read stories of lives that have been changed.

Anyone who is interested is invited to match the $42.20 that was collected in February's My Coins Count offering. You can designate the amount for "My Coins Count" on your match so Quenna knows where to place the offering. On March 19 we will collect another My Coins Count offering with a new amount to match between March and April's offerings. The money will be given to MCC during the TriState Relief Sale to use in their refugee program.

From Aging in Somerset: Our Conemaugh Township seniors are going to make more Dementia/Alzheimer blankets for people of our community. If you have any material (fleece or other, including different textures, colors, etc.) please consider donating them to us. We are also in need of buttons, zippers, small stuffed animals, Velcro, string, curtain tassels, or other notions. If you want to help make the blankets or donate items, please call Chris at 479-2216. Any help or donation would be greatly appreciated.

A delegate from Stahl congregation to attend the Mennonite convention in Orlando, FL this July is needed. Four youth from Stahl will also be going. If anyone is interested please let Neil Lehman know.
